In interest of creating the most value, we need to orient our business to produce the best possible returns. This objective can only be achieved by finding the ideal balance between the right products, the right structures, and the right people to execute our plans. Today, our business model has been primed to chase for quality growth.

Dear Shareholders,

I am pleased to share with you an update on your Company's performance for FY2019, a year that has seen remarkable progress for Mishtann Foods Limited. We continued to focus on transforming our business, emerging as a growing global branded specialty foods company with a focus on basmati and specialty rice. We are now pursuing strategies that involve greater differentiation and allow us to create sustainable value for all our stakeholders. To capitalise on the growing market opportunities, we are reinforcing our positioning by delivering high-quality products and enhancing our brand visibility. At the same time, we aim to diversify our portfolio to include more value-added products.

Through the past two years, we have undergone a fundamental transformation, from being a bulk rice player in our formative years, to evolving into a globally recognised and branded specialty rice company. Today, we have a strong portfolio of basmati and specialty rice products catering to a wide customer base at every price point.

For the foreseeable future, India is expected to maintain a strong domestic consumption driven growth story. The increasing disposable income levels and an escalating number of consumers have further given rise to allow for the premiumisation of our product portfolio. We are determined to deliver products that are sought after and healthy, by setting the standard for quality and taste.

Branding for Mishtann

We understand that branding is crucial to a business because of the impact it makes on the Company as a whole. Our branding initiatives allow our consumers to build trust and expect a certain standard of quality when they use our products. Being strongly branded helps connect Mishtann with our consumers across the globe, differentiating us from our competitors.

Going forward, we are actively pursuing and are engaged in many opportunities that will keep our growth engine humming. Developing and implementing a strong marketing strategy is of paramount importance for our branding initiatives.

We aim to keep building our brand position, and establish it in the consciousness of millions of consumers.

Last year, we focused on constructing clear marketing goals and objectives, and defining ways to meet them with specific strategies and tactics. Our marketing reach extends globally through active social media engagement and multi-channel campaigns. To enhance the recall value of our brand amongst the consumers, we have placed OOH campaign hoardings in high potential areas. In order to increase our interactions with the consumers, we are engaging with them through multiple social media platforms such as Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter. Furthermore, we participated in the world's largest annual food and beverage trade show — GulFood — where all our products were displayed to increase the awareness and recognition of our brand.

Integrated Processing Unit

Our business draws major strength from our backend infrastructure, which has been created over a period of years. Our state-of-the-art processing plant, with a capacity of 45 metric tonnes per hour, is designed for manufacturing and processing specialised products. This plant is an end-to-end rice processing facility, which gives us a competitive edge by combining more than one specific process into a single plant. This facilitates faster throughput, cuts down transportation costs and carries out processing and packaging in the same place. We ensure multiple checks for quality, efficiency enhancement and cost reduction at our facility.

Growth Outlook

Going forward, we see ourselves on a path of strong growth. We aim to keep building our brand position, and establish it in the consciousness of millions of consumers. Our processes are being strengthened to align our business with this objective. Our enhanced brand presence will be supported by the robust momentum in the acceptance of our products in India and across the globe.

Additionally, we intend to diversify into different food products under the 'Mishtann' brand. Management Discussion and Analysis

Management Discussion And Analysis

Global Economy

According to IMF's World Economic Outlook forecast, global growth during 2018 contracted to 3.6% from 3.8% in 2017. The contraction was partly led by US-China trade tensions; tighter monetary policies in China; disruptions in the auto industry in Germany; uncertainty over UK's Brexit; and the volatility in crude oil prices and emerging market currencies.

US economy grew 2.9% in 2018, marking a significant increase from 2.2% in 2017 on the back of a landmark reduction in corporation tax rates and an acceleration in federal spending. UK, which showed significant growth in demand led by a strong labour demand underpinned the UK economy which is facing pressure on growth due to uncertainties over Brexit and global slowdown.

China witnessed its slowest growth in the last 28 years at 6.6%, as a tighter monetary policy and unresolved tariff negotiations with the US decelerated its growth rate. Emerging Market economies faced difficult external environment such as geo-political tensions; US-China trade war; rising interest rates; volatile crude oil prices; volatile currencies with a depreciating trend against the US dollar; and capital migration towards US from emerging markets, amongst others.

Looking forward into 2019, growth in advanced economies and emerging market economies is expected to be around 2.0% and 4.5% respectively. Overall, the global economy growth is expected to further decline to 3.3% in 2019, and then pick up to 3.6% in 2020.

Indian Economy

India remains to be the flag-bearer for economic expansion in the global landscape. As per IHS Markit, India is forecasted to be the fifth largest economy in the world by the end of 2019, reaching a size exceeding US$ 3 Billion and is projected to surpass Japan to become second largest in the Asia-Pacific region by 2025.

India's economy grew by 6.8% in FY2019, as per data released by Central Statistics Office (CSO), and retained its tag for the fastest growing major economy. For the same period, the inflation remained within control with Wholesale Price Index (WPI) based inflation at 3.18%, and Consumer Price Index (CPI) based inflation was at 3.41%. The Index of Industrial Production (IIP) grew by 3.6%, majorly driven by growth in the infrastructure and construction sectors. The Government maintained fiscal discipline and met the fiscal deficit target of 3.4% of GDP during the period. India's foreign exchange reserves stood at a healthy US$ 411.9 billion by the end of March 2019. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) announced multiple rate cuts to ease the prevailing liquidity condition in the market and to bolster domestic consumption.

India's overall economic outlook continues to remain positive on the back of an uptrend in domestic consumption; stable inflation; accommodative monetary policy by RBI; government's focus on infrastructure development amongst others. As per the IMF, India's GDP is expected to grow by 7.3% in 2019, and 7.5% in 2020. Given these strong macroeconomic tailwinds, corporate and retail lending will continue to offer substantial potential for growth, especially for products such as real estate loans, auto loans, affordable housing loans, working capital loans and consumer durable loans. Retail lending is also expected to contribute significantly to the overall growth in domestic consumption and momentum to the economy going forward.

With the incumbent ruling party — Bhartiya Janata Party (BJP) — winning the May 2019 general elections, economists expect to see continuity in the implementation of macroeconomic policies over the next five years, creating a sense of stability in the Indian economy. The success of the new government is expected to depend on how it faces challenges that are inhibiting India's current growth momentum and its ability to brace the economy from unavoidable external challenges. With both demand and investment slowing, the government might have to re-evaluate the implementation of its policy agenda and adjust its policy priorities to accelerate growth in the near term. Despite challenges, the economic outlook for India remains positive for the second term of the Modi-led BJP government, with a GDP growth forecast averaging 7% per year during the 2019 to 2023 period.

Industry Overview

Indian Agriculture

With more than half a population being dependent upon Agriculture and allied industries for employment, the agriculture sector remains critically important for Indian economy. Even though the sector has witnessed mechanisation and modernisation over the years, the overall economic viability of the sector is still facing issues such as low irrigation penetration, weather uncertainties, labour availability and costs, and crop diseases, amongst others. As a result, the share of agriculture sector in country's Gross Domestic Production (GDP) is on a downward trend. The agriculture and allied sector's Gross Value Added (GVA), at constant 2011-12 prices, grew at a CAGR of 3.5% between FY2012 to FY2018.

With farm distress becoming increasingly significant across the country, the Government has undertaken a host of initiatives and measures, with an objective of doubling the farm income by FY2022.

Union Budget 2019-20 Highlights

Global Rice Industry

Rice is a staple food across the global irrespective of geography and country's economic status. It is a grain that is consumed and produced in developed, as well as developing countries.

With Asia as the largest consumer, India and China are the largest producers of rice, growing 148 million tonnes and 116 million tonnes respectively in 2018-19, accounting for 30% and 23% of the global production respectively. The top five rice growing nations are - China, India, Indonesia, Bangladesh and Vietnam.

Product Share

On the consumption side, China and India are the biggest consumers of rice consuming 144 million tonnes and 101 million tonnes of rice respectively in 2018-19, accounting for 29% and 21% of the global consumption respectively. The top five rice consuming countries are - China, India, Indonesia, Bangladesh and Thailand.

Consumption Share

The convergence of China's rice import and export quantities is shifting towards global rice trade dynamics. Only 10 years ago, China played a minor role in rice trade, largely self-sufficient as the top global producer and consumer. However, its domestic support for rice farmers grew with steadily climbing minimum purchase prices for paddy rice, translating into high milled prices for consumers. As global exporter prices softened in 2011, China quickly grew in prominence as a major buyer and has been the top importer since 2013. The key suppliers have been neighbours such as Vietnam and Burma, while Thailand and Cambodia have also played significant roles. Recent changes in the tariff definitions affecting glutinous rice, and efforts to formalise trade and establish quotas with Cambodia and Burma, have also shifted trade patterns.

Indian Rice Industry

Rice is one of the most important crops in India, accounting for approximately 40% of the total food grain production in India and occupying approximately 25% of the total cropped area. Rice is cultivated across the country and throughout the year, though the crop is mainly grown as a Kharif crop in rain-fed areas, which receive heavy annual rainfall.

Although in recent years, India's rice acreage has remained stagnant, while the production has grown consistently driven by improved varieties and farm mechanisation. High levels of buffer stocks and improved methods of production have helped India to position itself competitively in the global rice trade market.

Basmati Rice

Among all rice varieties, 'Basmati Rice' is a premium category of rice blessed with the characteristics such as extra-long slender grains that elongate at least twice of their original size; soft and fluffy texture upon cooking; delicious taste; superior aroma and distinct flavour. Basmati rice is unique among other aromatic long grain rice varieties. It is traditionally grown in Indian subcontinent, with India and Pakistan dominating most of the production. Basmati rice is grown only once a year, in the kharif crop cycle, sown in May-June and harvested in September-November. In India, the major Basmati rice producing states are Punjab, Haryana and Uttar Pradesh, which together account for over 95% of the country's total Basmati rice production. Jammu and Kashmir and Uttarakhand also contribute to India's production of Basmati rice.

While majority of the non-basmati rice produced in India is consumed domestically (approximately 90%), a majority of Basmati rice produced is exported (approximately 75%). Major exports markets are Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) countries, Europe and The USA. India has always been the largest exporter of Basmati than Pakistan, and the gap has only widened over the years. This has been driven by efforts towards the development of suitable varieties (hybrid varieties with better yield and low inputs requirement); the adoption of modern technology for rice processing; the liberalisation of trade policy and licensing procedures; and investments done for quality produce of Basmati.

The outlook for the Basmati Rice industry is favourable, supported by demand from GCC countries — especially from Iran — and the potential upside from branded demand and premiumisation on domestic front. Buoyed by the India Meteorological Department (IMD) prediction of a normal Monsoon in 2019, and the continued trend of firming up of prices, the Basmati rice industry is expected to experience a rise in both, the acreage under cultivation, and also in its production in 2019-20 crop year.

Over the years, the company has focused to build and operate a business model, which is scalable and sustainable. Being dependent on an agricultural commodity it is essential to create a value chain, which is effective, efficient and can withstand adverse situations.

SOURCING

Sourcing the rice paddy is the most important part as it is dependent upon the weather, susceptible to various diseases, and subject to stringent exports norms. Mishtann, through its established relationships with various mandis and agents, sources rice paddy from open markets. This is done using a simple cash and carry model, where cash is paid upfront. Due to the Company's nature of business, subsidised loans can be obtained through banks and financial intermediaries for sourcing. About 85% of the sourcing can be obtained at concessional rates. The Company carries out various quality checks at this stage in order to source high quality paddy.

PROCESSING

Once the paddy rice is sourced, it is transported to the processing plant. The paddy rice is stored in a state-of-the-art facility so that its quality is enhanced while retaining its other characteristics.

The Company's basmati rice portfolio draws major strength from its efficient processing and packaging facilities. The processing plant of Mishtann Foods Limited is a modern and entirely automated plant, with a capacity to produce 45 metric tonnes per hour. The plant is also a fully integrated packaging and milling facility, which process a cost advantage to the Company.

The processing of basmati rice, wheat and dal happens in the Company's 10,000 MTPA plant, situated in Himmatnagar, Gujarat. This plant has a relatively closer proximity to the port, giving cost advantage to the Company by enabling quick and easy access to export ports.

PACKAGING

The packaging facility is fully integrated with the rice processing facility. Once the rice is processed, it is packed in various packing sizes based on orders and demand forecasts. The Company packs rice in four packaging sizes: 1, 5, 10 and 25 kg.

MARKETING

Finally, the packaged rice is sold to super-stockists. However, the company also has a presence in the HORECA segment. It has crafted multiple marketing strategies in order to create brand recall and brand consciousness with all its customers.

Our Business Strategy

Mishtann has drawn upon a 7-point strategy, which encompasses all dimensions of the business in order to support its business model and steer future growth. These strategies are in-line with the Company's vision and goals, and are formulated to help it attain the desired results.

BUSINESS STRATEGY

Our business strategy is to source the highest quality paddy, which is compliant with all export norms. The Company purchases paddy from open markets, and so, has developed a strategy for gathering as much on-ground information of the mandi as possible, allowing it to establish a paddy procurement strategy for any particular day. The Company has further maintained strong relationships with various mandis and agents, which gives Mishtann easy and early access to procure high-quality rice paddy.

The Company also engages across the entire value chain to continuously gain feedback for value enhancement.

FINANCIAL STRATEGY:

The Company's financial strategy is to grow its margins, de-leverage its balance sheet and improve its RoE and RoCE ratios. Mishtann continuously focuses on the premiumisation of its portfolio, and positions itself as a premium branded basmati rice maker in order to improve its margins. As a result, the Company's EBITDA margin has increased significantly from 2.9% in FY2017 to 4.9% in FY2019. During the same period, PAT Margin also improved from 0.5% to 2.4%. The promoters have infused equity capital to the tune of ₹ 400 million into the Company over the past 2 years, thus bringing down the Debt/Equity ratio from 2.94x to 0.52x. The RoE and RoCE for FY2019 stood at 17.1% and 26.8% respectively, compared to 11.3% and 22.1% in FY2017, respectively.

OPERATING STRATEGY

Being dependent on an agricultural commodity, Mishtann has implemented best-in-class sourcing, transportation and storage facilities for paddy rice. The Company sources high quality export compliant paddy rice, transports it to the processing plant using an efficient transportation system to reduce the lead time, and uses a state-of-the-art facility to store unprocessed and processed Rice paddy.

The Company has also implemented various demand forecasting techniques, which uses traditional as well as alternative data to cater to the demand for rice in the market effectively. It continuously takes feedback from its sales and marketing department, distributors and super stockists to gauge the demand for the various rice products.

MARKETING STRATEGY

Mishtann has a very proactive approach towards its marketing strategies, using them to steer its next phase of growth. These strategies are aimed towards utilising the skills of its employees and the stakeholders, and developing a creative approach to enhance sales, branding and customer service.

Mishtann's marketing and branding strategies are brainstormed and written as a part of the overall Company's strategies. The marketing strategies include plans for the current product portfolio, the pricing and positioning of the products, distribution of the product, and advertising campaigns. The marketing strategy also includes the development of promotional strategies to identify the target customers and to set measurable goals.

Mishtann's EBITDA margin in FY2019

Mishtann has crafted multiple marketing strategies in order to create brand recall and brand consciousness. The company has leveraged on the trend of the rising use of social media platforms in order to deliver its marketing strategy. Apart from this, it has also put up advertisement hoardings and launched a television commercial to reach a wider audience.

GROWTH STRATEGY

The Company's strategy is to grow at a sustainable pace so that growth is attained without putting burden on the balance sheet and to be able to maintain the growth trajectory for a longer period of time. In order to achieve this secular growth, the Company's strategy is to establish and strengthen its relationship with the Middle Eastern market, which is the largest importer of Indian Basmati rice; launch new products specially crafted for those markets; penetrate deeper into domestic markets; and grow its contribution from value-added staples such as wheat and pulses.

RISK MANAGEMENT STRATEGY

Risk is the main cause of uncertainty in any organisation. Risk management is important in an organisation because without it, a firm cannot possibly define its objectives for the future. If a company defines objectives without taking the risks into consideration, chances are that they will lose direction once any risk becomes reality. The ability to manage risk help companies act more confidently on future business decisions. Keeping this in mind, Mishtann has placed various risk management techniques to effectively manage potential uncertainties. Risk planning, risk budgeting and risk governance is implemented every year, and monitored by the senior management, periodically. The Company identifies the risks that are worth taking in order to maximise the value (risk retention); reduces the risks that can be reduced to an extent (risk reduction); avoids taking risks where management feels the risk reward is not favourable (risk avoidance); and transfers the appropriate risks to the other parties (risk transfer).

Our Branding and Marketing Initiatives

FY2019 was an eventful year for Mishtann Foods as far as implementing its well-crafted media strategy was concerned. Building on the momentum created through the digital and social media campaigns and marketing campaigns, the Company further stepped up its campaign initiatives this year to increase its brand awareness and popularity. Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats

COMMITTED MANAGEMENT TEAM

Mishtann's committed and experienced management team is capable of steering the growth trajectory in all market conditions. It is complemented by an equally talented, dedicated and committed team of individuals across all departments to realise the vision of the Company.

ESTABLISHED RELATIONSHIP ACROSS ENTIRE VALUE CHAIN

The Company has established relationships across the entire value chain, right from procurement to the end customers. Strong supply chain and super-stockist relationships help the Company to reach across the different parts of India without going out of stock.

STATE-OF-THE-ART, STRATEGICALLY LOCATED PROCESSING PLANT

The Company has a fully integrated and automated Basmati rice processing plant, strategically located near the port, which reduces the exports cost. It focuses on continuous modernisation and maintenance of the plant to maintain the efficiency and effectiveness.

CONSISTENT FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

The Company has been able to deliver consistent growth in the financial and operating metrics. With the help of 400 million equity infusion by the promoters in last 2 years, current debt/equity ratio is at 0.52x, which provides confidence to the investors and lenders and facilitates the Company to raise the debt capital without hassle.

Weaknesses

CLIMATE DEPENDENCY

Any adverse weather conditions or rainfall shortage can lead to drop in rice paddy plantation and production.

WORKING CAPITAL INTENSIVE BUSINESS

As basmati rice needs to be stored for ageing and is produced only once a year, sizable amount of capital is required for storage and quality maintenance.

HIGHLY REGULATED MARKET

As the government, time to time, notifies minimum support price (MSP) for the paddy, raw material cost can fluctuate significantly.

PRONE TO DAMAGE RAW MATERIAL

Being an agricultural product, rice paddy is susceptible for various diseases that can damage the crop.

OpportunitiesCHANGING LIFESTYLE & CONSUMER TASTE

Domestic as well as international markets are witnessing rising consciousness about the health and branded products, giving impetus to the organised branded market over unorganised unbranded market.

GLOBAL DEMAND & CONSUMPTION

Rice being a staple food for the majority of the global population, rice demand has been growing in line with population growth. Basmati rice, which is consumed majorly in the GCC countries has seen rising demand for the basmati rice.

ThreatsCOMPETITION FROM UNORGANISED SEGMENT

Despite rising trend for the demand of branded, organised sector products, unorganised sector in Basmati Rice segment accounts for nearly 45% of the market, which operates at lower margins and hence poses a risk to the organised market.

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS

Demand of Basmati Rice in domestic as well as international markets is dependent upon economic conditions. A slowdown in the domestic economy, US trade policy, Brexit uncertainty and currency fluctuations in developing countries can adversely impact the demand for Basmati Rice.

Business Outlook

Mishtann, being a proactive and competent company, will continue to ride its growth trajectory and expand its product reach and brand awareness. The Company will continue to be a consumer centric company rather than a price centric company.

In the mid-long term, the Company will focus on infrastructure and capability enhancement. It will take additional measures to strengthen its entire value chain including farmers, agents, transportation network, super-stockists, end customers and create a competent team of people. This will enhance the competitive position of the Company.

As a part of diversification strategy, Mishtann will focus on strengthening its value-added staple product portfolio, which includes wheat and pulses in order to reduce the dependency on a single product — Basmati Rice — and the risks associated with it.

The Company will also continue its focus on keeping the growth trajectory of its financial and operating metrics intact by improving the quality of its balance sheet further. The Company's continuous focus on premiumisation, and efforts to establish itself as a premium basmati rice maker, will help Mishtann to improve its margins. By maintaining a robust financial position and balance sheet leveraged only to the extent 0.52x, the Company is well positioned to augment its growth trajectory.

In order to leverage the existing capacity and relationships across the value chain, the Company intends to establish a parboil rice processing plant. In order to expand its reach in domestic market, it is planning to establish more warehouses in the coming year. Furthermore, in order to diversify and add value, the Company is planning to enter into the pulses, multigrain flour and fruit juice processing segments.

Most importantly, Mishtann remains focused on growth of its core business — Basmati Rice — by expanding the super-stockist network, as well as offering latest innovation and product basket in the coming years.

Human Resources

The prime goal of Mishtann has always been to ensure work satisfaction for all the employees right from the junior level to top management. They should be happy and satisfied with the quality of work and able to generate productive output. to the Independent Auditor’s Report

(Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under ‘Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements’ section of our report to the Members of Mishtann Foods Limited of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 (“the Act”)

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of MISHTANN FOODS LIMITED (“the Company”) as of March 31, 2019 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management’s Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditor’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the internal financial controls over financial reporting of the Company based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting (the “Guidance Note”) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditor’s judgement, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company’s internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting.

A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company’s internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company’s assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at March 31, 2019, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.
